When I'm alone at night I dream them

Trembling in my

sleep

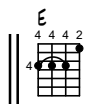

And everywhere I

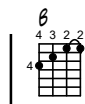

go I see them

I could almost weep

13a

I will not sing you a requiem though

We walk the same

street

Even with my eyes closed I see them

Children in bare feet

21b

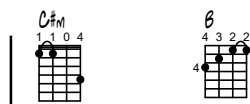

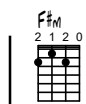

I look away but

they're here beside me

I look away but

they reach inside me

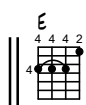

I look away but

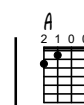

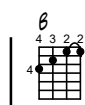

they're all I can see

Children in

bare feet

29a

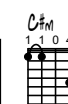

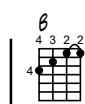

When I'm alone at

night I dream them

Fragile as the dawn

And everywhere I

go I feel them

Traveling a long

37b

This is no time for a requiem

We've all

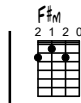

learned to take the heat.

Even with my eyes closed I see them

Children in

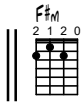

bare feet

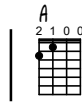

Children in

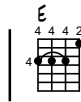

bare feet

47a Show me a place where

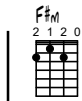

no pain can find me

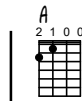

Let the last tide

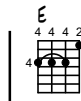

rise

Show me the heaven

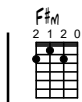

madmen deny me

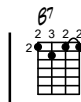

Children, lift

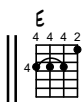

your eyes

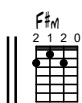

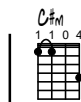

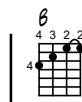

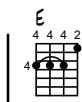

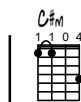

Children, lift
